

How to order 10 or more books at a discount
EAS Syndrome: Healing Burnout in Adults Lacking Parental Affirmation, by Bishop Trevor Walters

Now even a small group can purchase Anglican House publications at a 55% discount, i.e., you pay just 45% of a books' cover price.

Anglican House and Midpoint Trade Books, the publishing industry's leading distributor, have made this special program available to ACNA Congregations and Dioceses.

It's as easy as One-Two-Three!

1. Email the following to Midpoint's National Account Manager Karen Bell at karen@midpointtrade.com:
 - Your Church or Diocesan name and mailing address.
 - The name, email address, and daytime phone number of your contact person.
 - The quantity ordered. (There's a minimum of ten (10) copies per title, and the books are nonreturnable.)
 - Say whether or not books should be back-ordered for you if they are temporarily out of stock.
2. Karen will do the following:
 - Set up an account for you.
 - Ask for your credit card information.
 - Charge your credit card 45% of the book's cover price, plus sales tax and shipping. (Normally UPS Ground)

You may mail email Karen directly with any questions.
3. Once you are set up in Midpoint's system, and have made a purchase, you will place subsequent orders with: orders@midpointtrade.com

Billing and payment will be with Midpoint's main office:

Midpoint Trade Books, Inc.
27 W. 20th Street, Ste. 1102
New York, NY 10011

You will receive email confirmation that your orders are being processed.
